

NITA NALDI was born in New York City on April 2nd., and received her education in that city. From youth she was always interested in the theatre, making her début on the musical comedy stage in the chorus of "The Passing Show of 1918" at the New York Winter Garden. She has posed for many of the world's leading artists, being rated as one of the most beautiful brunette types. Not without a touch of romance is the story of this strikingly beautiful girl who jumped from obscurity to fame in a few short months. Being first cast for a rôle in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" her screen presence brought her a coveted rôle in Valentino's "Blood and Sand," and made her famous as a screen "vamp." She is fond of poetry, dances wonderfully and is 5 feet 4 inches in height, weighing 131 lbs., and has dark hair and brown eyes.
